The Writers Circle In-School Workshops

Out of this World!

(Grades 4-6)

Students explore and create new worlds, time periods, peoples and creatures all their own. Whether they want to travel backward, forward or sideways in time, or slip off to another universe that only exists in their imagination, this workshop ignites their imagination and engages their creativity. Our prompts and fun exercises prepare students to climb aboard spaceships, slay dragons, capture oompity-boops or what-nots. The sky is the limit—actually no, nothing is the limit! If your students can imagine it, they can write it in this workshop where creativity rules!

This workshop meets all or part of the following core curriculum standards:
