The Writers Circle In-School Workshops

BeTWEEN the Lines (Grades 5-7)

Kids learn how to get their ideas on paper, and then how to make their stories really work. This class bridges playful ideas into a more mature environment where gentle, constructive critique and group discussion introduce and refine students' understanding of the elements and challenges of story-making. Students build confidence and improve their writing in an open-minded, positive and often exuberant atmosphere.

This workshop meets all or part of the following core curriculum standards:
